

Frequently Asked Questions - 100% Reservable Sites

Beginning in 2014, 100% reservations are available at Fort Abraham Lincoln and Lake Metigoshe State Parks.

1. Why are 100% reservations offered at these state parks?

There is a high demand for camping use at both state parks. By offering 100% reservations, all customers have an equal opportunity to rent a campsite; those traveling a long distance to the park as well as those living nearby.

2. How do I reserve a campsite? Three options are available:

- a. Online: Go to www.parkrec.com 24 hours/day. Reservation fees apply.
- b. Telephone: Call toll-free 800-807-4723 from 7am-7pm daily. Reservation fees apply.
- c. Same Day Reservation: Available campsites may be reserved from 9am - 9pm by calling the park directly. Reservation fees apply.
 - Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park: 701-667-6340
 - Lake Metigoshe State Park: 701-263-4651

3. When can I reserve a campsite?

- a. Campsites may be reserved up to 95-days in advance of arrival either online or through the call center.
- b. Campsites may be reserved the day of arrival by calling the park directly.

4. Are first come first serve campsites available in the park?

- a. Yes, if a campsite is not reserved it is considered a first-come first-serve (FCFS) site.

5. How do I know if a campsite is available?

- a. Customers can:
 - a) Look at the online website;
 - b) Call the park directly; or
 - c) While in the park, verify available campsites with park staff
- b. Calls to the park and on-site bookings will be accepted from 9am to 9pm each day for Same Day reservations.
- c. Reservation fees do not apply for available campsites secured while in the park.

6. Can I call the park directly and reserve an available site for that night?

- a. Yes, customers may book a Same Day reservation by calling the park directly from 9am to 9pm each day. Reservation fees will apply to guarantee the campsite is held in advance of arrival.

7. Am I allowed to move to another site to extend my stay beyond the one available night?

Yes, if the current site is not available for an additional night, customers may move to another available site by booking it through park staff from 9am to 9pm each day.

8. Am I required to pay a reservation fee upon arrival at the park to occupy an available campsite?

Customers are NOT required to pay a reservation fee when they arrive at the park to rent an available site.
